

JUSTICE

NAPA VALLEY

2016 Jurisprudence Cabernet Sauvignon Oakville

Since our first vintage in 2004, Justice has represented our foray into the deep end of the high-end Napa Cabernet pool. Our commitment to working with the best fruit available to produce single-vineyard wines of true expression has continued to set the tone for our entire portfolio, and a time-honored relationship with Andy Beckstoffer has helped create the foothold that has secured our continued access to two of Napa Valley's most iconic vineyards. Even Wine Spectator got their hands on them over a decade ago and put the Justice trio in a "20 to Watch" feature. Combined with high accolades from Parker's The Wine Advocate, among many others, it's no surprise the Justice wines carry a distinctive legacy on their own.

The Justice offerings feature three distinctly individual expressions of Napa Valley at its finest. Featuring two of Napa's most heralded single-vineyard sites, Beckstoffer's To Kalon and Dr. Crane vineyards, these wines spotlight the true expression of each site and the varietals that have helped make this region famous.

The verdict is in and Justice is served.

Tasting Notes

Named after a legal theory or philosophy of law, this is an exercise of Cabernet pedigreed hedonism. With fruit grown in a fabulous mixture of mineral-rich and loamy alluvial earth, we select our top barrels early in the aging process to produce a wine that delivers on the best of its sources, yet is accessible in its youth. The result is a concoction of black currants, spiced black cherries, sweet pipe tobacco, purple flowers, and vanilla cream that is too good to be missed. Fabulous mid-palate density reinforces the fact the fruit that goes into this bottling is of Grand Cru quality, and a lingering finish will keep the taste of this marvelous fruit on your palate for days.
