2019 ALEJANDRO BULGHERONI ESTATE CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Blended several times very intently by masters of their craft Philippe Melka, Michel Rolland, and Matt Sands, this wine annually is the ultimate expression of our house's work. Positive, full-bodied, and powerful, there's the expected dark fruit aromas of blueberry and blackberry syrup from St. Helena Cabernets. There's a warmth to this wine with holiday spices, ginger, and cinnamon wafting through the glass. Floral notes tease you with an almost potpourri quality with dried roses. An inky black wine, opaque and nearly impenetrable, on the palate you find black cherry, cola, hints of vanilla and baked cherry pie with a touch of stewed strawberries. There's a warm earthiness to it with just the slightest touch of smoked herbs. Almost indescribable, the silky tannins of this wine lead to an effortless finish that you never want to end. Truly a masterpiece and a magnificent expression of what Alejandro Bulgheroni Estate and Lithology are about.
